04 JOY OF LIFE GUIDE: SACRAMENTO
MUSEUMS AND THE ARTS

joie de vivre®
HOTELS • RESTAURANTS • SPAS

Second only to Paris, France, for the most trees per mile in the world, Sacramento seems to suggest that European feel from every leafy avenue, charming boutique and café… And if the trees, espresso bars, and shops weren't reminiscent enough, there are always the museums! Take some time to wander Sacramento's multitude of museums and art galleries and let the artistic atmosphere of the City of Trees embrace you.

ARTSAKE STUDIO Midtown
artsakestudio.com

Founded in San Francisco, ArtSake is a local collaborative art studio based in Sacramento. Focusing on the mediums of digital, color, black and white, portrait photography, pastel, ink, charcoal, oil, and acrylic, the artist creates evocative and meaningful art.

CALIFORNIA MUSEUM FOR HISTORY Downtown
1020 O Street 916.653.0650 californiamuseum.org

Housed in the State Archives Building, one block from the Capitol, the California Museum for History offers a unique showcase of the State's heritage, highlighting Women and the Arts. Visit and enjoy the thriving cultural experience offered within.

CALIFORNIA STATE RAILROAD MUSEUM Old Town
111 I Street 916.324.4950 csrmf.org

Located in Old Town Sacramento, the Railroad Museum is housed in a series of historic buildings. Known as North America's most popular railroad museum, the California State Railroad Museum is a great experience for visitors and locals alike.

CENTER FOR CONTEMPORARY ART SACRAMENTO (CCASAC) Midtown
1519 19th Street 916.498.9811 ccasac.org

Founded in 1989, the CCASAC is a member-supported, non-profit organization showcasing new, contemporary, and experimental art from regional, national, and international artists. View any of the spectacular exhibits and let your inner creativity be inspired by the vibrant and dynamic art.

CROCKER ART MUSEUM Downtown
216 O Street 916.264.1179
crockerartmuseum.org

Once the home of Judge E.B. Crocker, this Victorian building is now home to more than 14,000 works of art, including one of the finest collections of German 19th century pieces. An outstanding example of Victorian Italianate architecture, the museum is undergoing a $70 million renovation.

WELLS FARGO HISTORY MUSEUM Downtown
400 Capitol Mall 916.440.4161
www.wellsfargohistory.com/museums

The Wells Fargo Museum showcases original stagecoaches, documents, currency, and more. Its display of local, regional history in the Sacramento region is educational and interesting, and a great way to learn about the commercial history of the capitol.

Notes