ARCLIGHT CINERAMA DOME

One of the prime locations for Hollywood film premieres, the ArcLight Cinerama Dome has provided more than four decades of blockbuster hits. Built in only 16 days in the late 1960s, the 800-seat theater has become a historical part of Hollywood. 6360 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles 323.464.4226 • arlightcinemas.com

EGYPTIAN THEATRE

Inspired by the discovery of King Tut's Tomb in the mid-1920s, The Egyptian Theatre has become a national landmark. Not only does the theatre host more than 20 live performing arts groups, you can see independent, documentary, classic and foreign films on the weekends. 6712 Hollywood Blvd., Los Angeles 323.466.3456 • egyptiantheatre.org

MANN GRAUMAN'S CHINESE THEATRE

Be a part of movie magic when you visit Grauman's Chinese Theatre in Hollywood. The theatre's illuminating lights, 90-foot-tall, jade-green and bronze structure, imported temple bells, pagodas and other Chinese artifacts makes Grauman's one of the world's most famed movie theatres. This historic and cultural landmark is rich in movie tradition, with famous hand and footprints preserved in cement in the theatre's forecourt, which immortalizes the brightest stars of yesterday and today. Keep an eye out for celebrities walking the red carpet during one of many Hollywood film premieres hosted at Grauman's. Child and senior tickets are $7.00, adults are $10.00. 6925 Hollywood Blvd., Hollywood 323.461.3331 • manntheatres.com

EL CAPITAN THEATRE, HOLLYWOOD

Recently restored to its classic beauty by the Walt Disney Company, the El Capitan Theatre features first-run feature films from Walt Disney/Touchstone Pictures. Experience the romance of "old" Hollywood with the live organist who fills the theatre with vibrant sound before each show. Child and senior tickets are $10.00, adults are $12.00. 6838 Hollywood Blvd., Hollywood 323.467.7674

LAEMMLE MUSIC HALL 3

The Laemmle Music Hall in Beverly Hills is often used for film festivals and special engagements. With only three screening rooms, each decorated with plush red carpets, classic seats and a velvet screen curtain, the theatre frequently rotates movie showings. Child and senior tickets are $7.00, students with ID are $8.50 and adults are $10.00. 9036 Wilshire Blvd., Beverly Hills 310.274.6869 laemmle.com

IMAX – CALIFORNIA SCIENCENTER

You will immediately be immersed into any IMAX movie shown at the California Sciencenter. With razor-sharp images and six-channel surround sound systems, dedicated movie-goers are sure to leave with a surreal feeling. Located next to the University of Southern California and Exposition Park, visitors can tour the rose gardens, Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, Natural History Museum or even the California African American Museum. Child tickets are $4.75, seniors and students are $5.75 and adults are $8.00. 700 State Dr., Los Angeles 323.724.3623 • californiasciencecenter.org

SILENT MOVIE THEATRE

Opened as the "Movie" in 1942 by the late John and Dorothy Hampton, the Silent Movie Theatre's first feature screening was Cecil B. DeMille's epic, "The King of Kings." Dedicated to collecting and restoring silent classics that the major Hollywood studios were once discarding, the Silent Movie Theatre continues to commemorate classic silent films such as Charlie Chaplin's "Modern Times." 611 N. Fairfax Ave., Hollywood 323.655.2510 • silentmovietheatre.com

PACIFIC'S THE GROVE STADIUM 14

Situated in The Grove shopping center, the Pacific's Grove is an excellent addition to the high-end restaurants and retail shops surrounding the theatre. Buy popcorn and candy at one of the concession stands and then catch a number of feature films in the movie theatre's grand auditoriums. 189 The Grove Dr., Los Angeles 323.692.0829 • pacifictheatresthegrove.com
