

the LAUREL Inn

Like the charming neighborhood that surrounds it, the Laurel Inn is noted for its warm sense of hospitality. Built in 1963, this newly renovated hotel represents a contemporary take on Mid-Century style to create a sophisticated and comfortable interior drenched in rich colors, relaxed textures, and ingenious details. Each spacious guestroom is designed in the style of a studio apartment.

Hotel Services & Amenities

- Complimentary continental breakfast
- Afternoon lemonade and cookie service in the lobby
- Coffee and tea service 24-hours a day in the lobby
- Indoor parking
- Same day laundry and valet service
- CD and video lending library
- "G Bar" Cocktail Lounge next door
- Extended stays available
- Pet-friendly
- Complete concierge services
- Custom, staff-authored guides to the hidden sites and sounds of San Francisco

Guestrooms

Each of the 49 guestrooms, including 18 with modern kitchenettes, feature 2-line phone with dataport, voicemail, cable TV, VCR, CD player, iron with board, hairdryer and writing desk or table. Many of the rooms have spectacular, panoramic downtown views, sitting areas with sofa beds and vanity areas. The Laurel Inn is a non-smoking and pet friendly hotel.

Location

The Laurel Inn is located in beautiful and stately Pacific Heights, bordering the quiet residential neighborhood of Laurel Heights. Just steps from our door is quaint Sacramento Street, home to stylish boutiques and intimate dining. The hotel is walking distance to the historic Presidio National Park and a short drive to the Marina District, the Golden Gate Bridge, and Fisherman's Wharf. Located on the corner of California and Presidio Streets, it is a quick and direct route down California Street to the Financial District and Union Square.

