

With an ideal location nestled between Nob Hill and Union Square, Petite Auberge is the perfect small hotel for a sightseeing trip to San Francisco or a special romantic getaway. The rich and detailed design of the Petite Auberge welcomes you to a world of French provincial enchantment. French doors with beveled glass, a collection of French art, a cozy parlor with a crackling fire and afternoon wine and hors d'oeuvres await your arrival. Many of the 26 guestrooms and suites offer fireplaces. All guests receive a gourmet continental breakfast buffet each morning.

Hotel Services & Amenities

- A complimentary gourmet breakfast buffet of homemade continental and hot items
- Evening wine and hors d'oeuvres served fireside in our cozy parlor
- Homemade cookies available in our lobby all day
- Same day laundry/valet service
- Valet parking
- Complete concierge services
- Custom, staff-authored guides to the hidden sites and sounds of San Francisco

Guestrooms

Each of the 26 intimate guestrooms feature voicemail with dataport, iron and board, hairdryer, bathrobe and many feature fireplaces. Honeymooners might want to select the "Petite Suite" with its private deck, hand painted king bed, tub, champagne and chocolates. Petite Auberge is a non-smoking property.

Location

Petite Auberge is located on Bush St. between Mason and Taylor atop Nob Hill, up the hill from Union Square and minutes away from the Powell Street Cable Car, Financial District, Chinatown, North Beach and many of the City's finest restaurants.

